

Experiment participation consent form and explanations on acquisition of consent

We are conducting a research aimed at analyzing the movement of the line of sight. As part of this research, we ask for your cooperation in the experiments. We apologize for the inconvenience, but if you would like to cooperate after reading the following notes on research ethics, please sign the experiment participation agreement.

Precautions regarding research ethics

- (i) Participation in this experiment is not compulsory.
- (ii) If you want to stop the experiment in the middle, you can stop it immediately.
- (iii) The results of the experiment are used for research purposes only and the data are processed statistically. It is not used for personally identification or it is not planned to be disclosed without anonymization.
- (iv) We will strictly adhere to the confidentiality of personal information.

Experiment participation consent form

Person in charge of the experiment
Okayama University Graduate School of Natural Sciences
Assistant Professor YUCEL Zeynep

Prior to participating in this experiment, I received an explanation about this experiment and understood its contents, so I agree to participate in this experiment at my own will. I hereby submit this document after signing as proof of consent.

Reiwa              Year              Month              Day

Participant

Full name:

Age:

Dominant hand:      Right      Left